

August 19, 2018 Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time (535 in Red Missal) Thirteenth Sunday After Pentecost (760 Black Missal)

St. Maximilian 77 years ago last week (August 14, 1941) a man died by lethal injection in a prison cell. The guards at Auschwitz had stuffed ten men into a "starvation cell" in Block 11, but one of the condemned went into that dark pit a free man. Fr. Maximilian Kolbe was not initially chosen to die, but he had stepped forward to ask the camp commander if he could take the place of one of the doomed men, who had a wife and seven children. His sacrifice was accepted. John Paul II canonized Fr. Maximilian in 1983 as a martyr because he "witnessed" to Christ by dying in another man's place, just like Christ. Fr. Maximilian's sacrifice sent shock waves throughout the concentration camps. Auschwitz survivor Jerzy Bielecki described it as "a shock filled with hope, bringing new life and strength...it was like a powerful shaft of light in the darkness of the camp."

Shock Waves I called my mother on St. Maximilian's day last week to wish her a happy feast. We got to talking about the darkness being uncovered even in the lives of our most trusted Catholic prelates. In the weakness and simplicity of her advanced age, my mother said "God is stronger than any evil," and I was greatly consoled. Yesterday another shock wave came my way, though: a grand jury reported over 1000 cases of abuse over a 70-year period in the Catholic churches across the entire state of Pennsylvania. I have no doubt that if a grand jury closely examined the Pennsylvania State School System over a comparable period, it would uncover at least as many cases of abuse. Our churches and our governments need constant reform, and the way of reform is to make God first in our lives, not second. I dearly hope these latest shocking revelations will motivate our bishops to do what only they can do--to put God first in our Church. St. Maximilian Kolbe put God first 77 years ago, and today I see this parish putting the love of God first. It is beautiful to see so many praying quietly before the Blessed Sacrament at all hours in my church; it is beautiful to witness the kindness with which our office volunteers feed the poor who daily come to our front door. Our Lady Fr. Kolbe wanted to die on a feast of Our Lady. In 1941, August 14 was the Vigil of the Assumption of Our Lady. On August 14, 1941, Fr. Maximilian Kolbe followed our Lady to Jesus and so found a shaft of light leading out of his prison cell.

Fr. Kolbe's prison photo

As a prisoner of Auschwitz he was a free man, and now, as one of God's inspiring saints, he shows us how to be free of this present darkness.

The Sunday Scriptures

by Fr. Joseph Illo Whoever Eats My Flesh (Proverbs 9:1-6, Ephesians 5:15-20, John 6:51-58) Today's is "cannibalism Sunday," when the Church plainly teaches what Christ so shockingly taught, and that led many non-Christians in Rome to call the early Christians "cannibals." We must eat his flesh, but under the sacramental cover of bread. Let no one, however, call Holy Communion just "bread." It is the flesh of Christ, and we enter into the greatest possible intimacy with Him at every Mass.

Hymns and Prayers

For the 20th Sunday in Ordinary Time

PROCESSIONAL HYMN: O Worship the King
#689, v. 1 & 6

O worship the King,
all glorious above,
O gratefully sing
his power and his love;
Our Shield and Defender,
the Ancient of Days,
Pavilioned in splendor,
and girded with praise.

O measureless Might,
ineffable Love,
While angels delight
to hymn thee above,
Thy ransomed creation,
though feeble their lays,
With true adoration
shall sing to thy praise.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Turn your eyes, O God, our shield; and look on the face of your anointed one; one day within your courts is better than a thousand elsewhere.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING: Proverbs 9:1-6

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps.34:9a

OFFERTORY HYMN: Praise to the Holiest in the Height -
#719 (v.1-4)

Praise to the Holiest in the height,
And in the depth be praise:
In all His words most wonderful;
Most sure in all His ways.

O loving wisdom of our God!
When all was sin and shame,
A second Adam to the fight
And to the rescue came.

O wisest love! that flesh and blood,
Which did in Adam fail,
Should strive afresh against the foe,
Should strive, and should prevail.

And that a higher gift than grace
Should flesh and blood refine:
God's presence, and His very self,
And essence all-divine.

SANCTUS 127

128 MEMORIAL ACCLAMATION A

AGNUS DEI 132

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

I am the living bread that came down from heaven, says the Lord.

Whoever eats of this bread will live forever.

COMMUNION ANTHEM (9:30) - Sung by Choir

O Taste and See - Isaac; R.V. Williams

*taste and see how gracious the Lord is.
Blessed is the man that trusteth in Him.*

COMMUNION HYMN: Let All Mortal Flesh Keep Silence - #609, v.1 & 2

Let all mortal flesh keep silence,
And with fear and trembling stand;
Ponder nothing earthly-minded,
For with blessing in his hand,
Christ, our God, to earth descendeth,
Our full homage to demand.

King of kings, yet born of Mary,
As of old on earth he stood;
Lord of lords in human vesture,
In the body and the blood
He will give to all the faithful
His own self for heav'nly food.

RECESSIONAL HYMN: Be Thou My Vision - #452

Be Thou my Vision, O Lord of my heart;
all else be naught to me, save that Thou art;
Thou my best thought, by day or by night,
waking or sleeping, Thy presence my light.

Be Thou my Wisdom, and Thou my true Word;
I ever with Thee and Thou with me, Lord;
Thou my great Father, Thine own may I be;
Thou in me dwelling, and I one with Thee.

High King of heaven, when vict'ry is won,
May I reach heaven's joys, bright heaven's Sun!
Heart of my heart, whatever befall,
Still be my vision, O Ruler of all.

The Extraordinary Form of the Roman Rite

Thirteenth Sunday After Pentecost

Processional Hymn: God, My King, Thy Might Confessing - # 536

God, my King, thy might confessing,
Ever will I bless thy name;
Day by day thy throne addressing,
Still will I thy praise proclaim.

All thy saints shall praise thy glory,
On thy might and greatness dwell,
Speak of thy great acts the story,
And thy deeds of wonder tell.

Full of kindness and compassion,
Slow to anger, vast in love,
God is good to all creation;
All his works his goodness prove.

All thy works, O Lord, shall bless thee;
All the saints shall thee adore.
King supreme shall they confess thee,
And proclaim thy sov'reign pow'r.

(Ps. 73: 1) O God, why hast Thou cast us off unto the end: why is Thy wrath enkindled against the sheep of Thy pasture? Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Have regard, O Lord, to Thy covenant, and forsake not to the end the souls of Thy poor: arise, O Lord, and judge Thy cause, and forget not the voices of them that seek Thee.

OUR COMMUNITY

1894 - 2019

125 Years of Beauty and Catholic
Worship in the Richmond District

Our parish was founded in 1894, the Mother Church of the Richmond District. As we were the closest parish to the ocean at the time, the bishop named our community for Mary, Star of the Sea. Let us prepare our church for her 125th anniversary next autumn by giving her a fresh paint job, more attractive flooring, and a general sprucing-up for all that has become worn-down over the years! We renovate our homes every fifteen or twenty years, so let us all pitch in to give our Lord's house a brighter and newer demeanor. We hope to raise $500,000 to paint inside and out, polish and repair, clean and touch-up. It's God's house. It's our house!

Stewardship Reflection

August 19, 2018

20th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Watch carefully then how you live, not as foolish persons but as wise..." (Ephesians 5:15)

A wise person recognizes that all we have and all we are comes from God. A wise person thanks God continually throughout the day for all His many blessings. A wise person realizes that God has blessed us for a reason and that He wants us to help Him build His kingdom of earth.
