June 11th, 2017 Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity (p688 in Red Missal) Extraordinary Form: Trinity Sunday (p696 in Black Missal)

Fr. Mathias Returns

Many of you will remember Fr. Mathias Wambua from Nairobi, Kenya, who spent last summer with us. He will be with us again from June 16-August 3! Many of you gave him monetary gifts last year, and he has used these funds to open a medical clinic in a shanty town outside of Nairobi. Here he is in front of the clinic, which he has named "Star of the Sea Medical Services." You can all be proud of our parish for supporting this clinic in the Third World, and grateful to God for a good priest friend in Kenya. Welcome back, Fr. Mathias!

Trinity Sunday The mystery of the Holy Trinity is the core and foundation of all Christian mysteries, and it simply reveals to us that the one God is never alone: He is a community of persons. Even in our best friendships and the most intimate marriages, we will inevitably feel lonely at times. But never God. From eternity the Father beholds the Son and the Son beholds the Father, and the mutual sigh of love they express forms the Holy Spirit. But God revealed his deepest identity to the world not just to impress us but to invite us into that divine community. Holy Mary already dwells fully in that mutual exchange of love between Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, because she has been assumed into heaven. We must persevere in our faith too, so that we will enter that blessed communion one day with her.

Brazil This coming week I will be giving a retreat to Mother Teresa's sisters in Brazil. Please pray for them and for me. I will return to our community on June 22.

Our mission statement: to evangelize God's people beginning with the gift of the Holy Eucharist.

NEWS

The Sunday Scriptures

by Fr. Joseph Illo

The Holy Trinity (Acts 2:14, 22-23, 1 Peter 1: 17-21, Luke 24:13-35)

The Gospel for Trinity Sunday is the famous John 3:16: "for God so loved the world." You can find this verse on the inside edge of every In-n-out soda cup (take a look!). why is it so important? Because the Father gives the Son, and the Son obeys the Father. Such is the perfect community of the Holy Trinity. Let us aspire to this perfect docility and trust in our own communities.

Marian Writing Contest

In preparation for the Consecration of the Archdiocese to the Immaculate Heart of Mary in October, children and youth in grades K-12 are invited to participate in an Art/Poetry/Essay contest on the theme of Mary. The contest is open to any student who is a member of a parish or attends a Catholic school or religious education program in the archdiocese. All grades may submit art and poetry; middle and high school students may opt for an essay. Suggested topics, deadlines, entry information and rules can be found at sfarchdiocese.org. The firm deadline for entries is September 22, allowing time for this to be a school or summertime project. Awards will be given by Archbishop Cordileone at the Rosary Rally and Consecration on October 7. Please call 415-751-0450 and ask for Claire for any questions.

Children's Faith Formation - The PSR Program

Start thinking ahead for the Fall. Classes are held Sept - May and prepare children for their Sacraments, but more importantly, teach them to live full lives in accordance with faith and reason. This is an opportunity to introduce your children to other children of faith. If you would like your child/ren to participate in our Parish School of Religion, or you would like to volunteer to help the PSR program in creating a more dynamic family life at Star, please contact Claire in the Office at 415-751-0450 or email claire@starparish.com.
