Mother Teresa Tonight!
On Sunday night I'm most excited to welcome an old friend, Msgr. Leo Maasburg, from a retreat to Mother Teresa's sisters in Ecuador, on his way back to Vienna. He's agreed to tell some personal stories about his old friend Mother Teresa of Calcutta. He originally titled his book (pictured below) "the Maasburg will speak at 6pm and be on hand afterwards to sign copies of his book. Derek West Question: Can there ever be a "New Martin (Ford, that is)?" Answer: No. But there can be a new Operations Manager, and as Martin ends his three years as parish Operations Manager to return to the world of startups, Derek West begins in that role on Monday. Derek received a BA in Management and an MBA before working many years in program and project management. Derek was received into the Church last year at Good Shepherd Parish in Pacifica, where he lives with his wife and son. He looks forward to becoming an integral part of our parish as well.

Farewell Martin and Claire Both Martin Ford and Claire Herrick will be leaving our staff this month, and so I invite you to a leave-taking after Holy Hour this Tuesday. Both young adults have given so much to our parish, bringing us into the Modern Age! For my money, their best quality is fidelity to prayer, shown in their love for Jesus in the Tuesday Holy Hour. Join them for some refreshments, speeches, and presentations at 8pm this Tuesday, and better yet, come to the Holy Hour too!

AAA Triumph! Our parish has surpassed the $100,000 mark on the Annual Archdiocesan Appeal for the first time in our 124-year history! Thanks to all who gave to the appeal, and especially to an anonymous donor who gave the final $450!

The Sunday Scriptures

by Fr. Joseph Illo Peace be with You (Acts 2: 1-11, Galatians 5:16-25 John 15:26-27: 16:12-15) St. John's version of Pentecost (in the Gospel today) happens on Easter night. Jesus comes through the locked doors and breathes the Holy Spirit into the disciples. "Peace be with you" he says. Isn't "a peace the world cannot give" the first fruit of the Holy Spirit? God sends that peace into each other when we say "peace be with you" at Mass, and to the priest "and with your spirit." Let us be people of deep peace, breathing it into others by our serene joy.
