My Father Last week I spent some time with my earthly father during our annual family reunion in Pennsylvania. Dad served in the US Army during World War II, arriving at age 18 in Manila to work at General Douglas MacArthur's headquarters. Dad once gave me a piece of Japanese occupation currency, which hangs above my desk to remind me of the cost at which these men obtained the freedom and order we now enjoy. Fifteen years later, President Kennedy had to remind Americans not to ask what our country can do for us, "but what we can do for our country." Even in 1961, the prosperity won by the men and women of the "Greatest Generation" were tempting Americans to complacency. Now, 70 years after my father fought in Manila, we are much further down the road of social decline.

The core problem in America today is fatherlessness. Twenty years ago David Blankenhorn pointed out in Fatherless America that never in American history have so many men abandoned their families. Without a father's strong and loving hand, many children will not mature. The infantile rage so embarrassingly obvious in public discussions, the adolescent violence increasingly manifest in our schools, the "failure to launch" so prevalent in the lives of adults are the inevitable result when fathers fail to form their children. God Our Father Christianity describes God as a "father," not as a mother. Mothers rarely fail us. When fathers fail us, God as father is there for us. We can return to right religion. We can pray to God as Father—in the rosary, at Mass, in adoration. Our Father, who art in heaven... deliver us!

Let's Read and Discuss!

Next reading for the Star Book Club will be Story of a Soul: The Autobiography of St. Therese of Lisieux. Our next book club meeting will be on Thursday, June 28, 7-8:30 p.m., in the rectory. The work is considered a spiritual classic, and the nineteenth century French Carmelite author is a popular saint throughout the world. Pope Saint John Paul declared Therese a Doctor of the Church. Please Contact mariella@starparish.com for more information.

Ordination of Bishop Christian

Tuesday, June 5th San Francisco Archbishop Salvatore Cordileone ordain Bishop Robert Christian as Francisco's 18th auxiliary bishop. Numerous Star of the Sea parishioners, staff and clergy attended the event and welcomed Bishop Christian into his new role.

As stated in the Catholic San Francisco publication, Bishop Christian is the first Dominican bishop since Dominican Father Joseph Sadoc Alemany became the first Archbishop of San Francisco in 1850. Archbishop Cordileone thanked the Order of Preachers for what he called the "exemplary leadership and tireless pastoral care" it has provided to the people of the Archdiocese of San Francisco and beyond.

Star of the Sea attendees were in awe of the ordination as the rites were accompanied by a choir of 40 voices, and an ensemble of timpani, horns and organ under the direction of cathedral music director Christoph Tietze. Mariella Zevallos, Star of the Sea Stewardship Coordinator, stated that the amazing music and hymns touched their hearts and made for a very memorable event.

The Sunday Scriptures

by Fr. Joseph Illo A Mustard Seed (Ezekiel 17:22-24, 2 Corinthians 5:6-10, Mark 4:26-34) The Lord describes faith as a mustard seed today, meaning that our part in saving the world is rather minuscule. We simply plant that tiny seed, but God gives it growth. The next time you get stressed about saving the world, or even making all the appointments on your day calendar, just remember that God does the heavy lifting in your life.
