Meat Machines? Kaiser is my health care provider. God bless my Kaiser doctors! They have thousands of patients, and the exceedingly "efficient" system rarely gives them more than five minutes with each patient. A doctor's visit today is designed to take less time than a car repair. Modern health care treats us more like machines than people, and I know this makes many doctors sad. They know we are more than "meat machines." Physicians are forced to pay more attention to their computer screens than to their patients. This treatment of a human being, at least implicitly, denies the needs of the soul.

A Catholic Doctor I recently heard of Dr. Jose Fernandez, a general practitioner in Orlando. A colleague asked him some years back if he were a Catholic doctor. "Of course!" he said: "I am a Catholic and I am a doctor." The other physician responded, "No, I mean a doctor that sees Christ in every patient." Dr. Fernandez now often spends a good hour with patients, leading them in prayer as well as prescribing medicines. One woman came to Dr. Fernandez after being diagnosed with lupus. Her previous doctor prescribed birth control. When she refused, he said she would die. She went to Dr. Fernandez, who told her "If it's God's will, you are going to be cured and you will have more children, but you have to do what I am going to tell you." Besides putting her on a new diet, he "prescribed" adoration twice a week. "This is an essential part of your protocol," he told her. Jessie has given birth to her fourth child and is healthy and strong. On Human Life There is still time to attend the Humanae vitae conference in LA next week (July 26-27). Many Catholic doctors will be speaking about a Catholic approach to health care and human sexuality on the 50th Anniversary of the great document from Pope Paul VI. Call me for details.

Fr. John giving altar server Orion Wagner a ride around the parking lot after Mass

PRAYER EVENTS

The Sunday Scriptures

by Fr. Joseph Illo Two by Two (Amos 7: 12-15, Ephesians 1: 3-14, Mark 6: 7-13) Our Divine Master sends out his apostles two by two in today's Gospel. I love to see the Missionaries of Charity sisters walking the streets of San Francisco in pairs, praying the rosary, as they make their way to the homeless encampments and homes of the poor. We diocesan priests go out alone, and maybe that is not such a good thing. Pray for more priests, so that even we secular priests can have the fraternal support of the first apostles!

Abba or Allah - By Scott Hahn

In this informative talk, Dr. Scott Hahn explores some of the most important beliefs that distinguish Christianity from Islam. He explains that while both religions trace themselves back to Abraham, the differences, including our understanding of God as Father, are not insignificant. With charity, balance, and candor, Dr. Hahn shows us how Islam presents the most formidable challenge to Christianity in the Third millennium.

Processional Hymn: God, We Praise You - #540, v. 1 & 4

God, we praise you! God, we bless you!
God, we name you sov'reign Lord!
Mighty King whom angels worship,
Father, by your Church adored:
All creation shows your glory,
Heav'n and earth draw near your throne,
Singing, "Holy, holy, holy Lord of hosts, and God alone!"

Christ, at God's right hand victorious,
You will judge the world you made;
Lord, in mercy help your servants
For whose freedom you have paid:
Raise us up from dust to glory,
Guard us from all sin today;
King enthroned above all praises,
Save your people, God, we pray.

Prepare your hearts unto the Lord, and serve him only: and he will deliver you out of the hand of your enemies.

Offertory Hymn: Lord of All Hopefulness - #622, vs. 1-3

Lord of all hopefulness,
Lord of all joy,
Whose trust, ever child-like,
No cares could destroy,
Be there at our waking,
And give us, we pray,
Your bliss in our hearts, Lord,
At the break of the day.

Lord of all eagerness, Lord of all faith,
Whose strong hands were skilled
At the plane and the lathe,
Be there at our labors,
And give us, we pray,
Your strength in our hearts, Lord,
At the noon of the day.

Lord of all kindness, Lord of all grace,
Your hands swift to welcome,

Wine, his sacred blood he makes;
faith alone the true heart wakes;
through this Sacrament may we

Communion Hymn: O Living Bread from Heaven -
#670, vs. 1,2 & 4

O Living Bread from heaven,
How well You fed Your guest!
The gifts that You have given
Have filled my heart with rest.
Oh, wondrous food of blessing,
Oh, cup that heals our woes!
My heart, this gift possessing,
With praises overflows.

Lord Jesus, here you led me
Within your holiest place,
And here Yourself have fed me
With treasures of Your grace;
And You have freely given
What earth could never buy,
The bread of life from heaven,
That I may never die.

Lord, grant me that, thus strengthened
With heav'nly food, while here
My course on earth is lengthened,
I serve with holy fear.
And when You call my spirit
To leave this world below,
I enter, through Your merit,
Where joys unmingled flow.

Processional Hymn: God, We Praise You - #540

v. 1 & 4 (see Page 4)

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!
O my soul, praise Him, for He is thy health and salvation!
All ye who hear, now to His altar draw near;
Joining in glad adoration.

Praise to the Lord, who doth prosper thy work and
defend thee;
Surely His goodness and mercy shall daily attend thee;
Ponder anew what the Almighty can do,
Who with His love doth befriend thee.

INTROIT Psalms 47: 10-11

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. ## The Project Corner

Over the past week we set out to inspect and service our primary source of heat for the school, church and rectory: the aging, but well maintained boilers.

Several of our boilers were made and installed in the early 1930's by people entering the depression with no idea of how bad the economy would get, how long the depression would last, and what terrible events would lead to the economy's recovery. San Francisco, like other big cities of the 1930's, saw unemployment rates skyrocket to over 25% and did not decline until President Roosevelt's New Deal programs began to take on workers. The construction of both the Golden Gate Bridge and Coit Tower also attributed to San Francisco's job growth during these difficult times.

With jobs being eliminated, companies shutting down and workers being turned away, I could only imagine the insecurity our boiler installers faced at the close of their Star of the Sea project. Despite these pressures, the boilers were laid down, pipes run through our buildings & radiators installed, which allowed Star of the Sea to keep our students and parishioners warm throughout the years.

As we close out our yearly boiler maintenance, I am thinking of what work we undertake in 2018 will be in service 80 years from now and will it have stood the test of time as our boilers have. I would also like to thank those men and women of long ago who worked on our school and church to make it what it is today.

Stewardship Reflection

July 15, 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick - no food, no sack, no money in their belts." (MARK 6:8)

How different we are from the apostles who took nothing when they ventured out to serve God. Today, we make our life's journey more difficult because of all the material baggage that we drag along. When we really put God first in everything and put money and possessions second, we experience more freedom to joyfully serve God and others.
