Excitement in Berkeley Here's some good news: a new prolife group of young adults has sprung up in the Bay Area called ProLifeSF. They are holding a conference this Saturday, September 8, at Cal Berkeley, with some impressive speakers, among them David Daleiden (who released the videos last year exposing Planned Parenthood's sale of infant body parts). Included is a film screening of the films Penny: Portrait of a Birth Mom, and Gosnell: America's Biggest Serial Killer. This conference is not for the faint-hearted, but I'm sure it will deepen our commitment to the great civil rights movement of our time. Who will speak for the voiceless and bring justice to those who are stripped even of the right to live? Unborn Americans have no voice but ours. You can register for the conference at www.prolifesf.com. Cleaning out the House A few weeks ago I mentioned that clergy crimes being revealed this summer will lead to a cleansing of Christ's Church. Archbishop Vigano's letter exposes a lot, and will of course have to be examined for accuracy. Our own Archbishop, like Cardinal DiNardo of the U.S. Bishops' Conference, are eager to examine the facts, from the Pope on down. We layfolk and simple parish priests pray that the hierarchy, beginning with Pope Francis, come clean on who knew what and when in the McCarrick and other criminal cases. But in the meantime we keep our own lives clean. We clean our sidewalks, tidy up our rooms, and keep our souls pure by frequent prayer and confession. We can't clean out the Vatican or the archdiocese, but we can clean out our own souls. I'm happy that many more are going to confession at Star these days, but we are far from where we need to be. Come back to frequent confession! The light at Star is always on for you.

Do you know this guy? He loves to clean up the sidewalk on 8th Avenue! He is our new Parish Manager, Derek West.

Thanks to all who gave generously to the flood victims in Kerela, India, last Sunday.

We sent a check last week for $5000!

PRAYER EVENTS

The Sunday Scriptures

by Fr. Joseph Illo Ephphatha (Isaiah 35: 4-7A, James 2: 1-5, Mark 7: 31-37) Jesus opens the ears of the deaf man with that Aramaic phrase, "ephphatha." He is ordering the disease to release the man; he is casting out the mute spirit; he is restoring this man's ears to their first love, which is to hear. Our Lord can heal every one of us, if we let Him. Are you sick, or depressed, or confused? Come to Christ in the Blessed Sacrament, and let him heal you!

PROCESSIONAL HYMN:

God, We Praise You - #540, v. 1 & 4

God, we praise you! God, we bless you!
God, we name you sov'reign Lord!
Mighty King whom angels worship,
Father, by your Church adored:
All creation shows your glory,
Heav'n and earth draw near your throne,
Singing, "Holy, holy, holy Lord of hosts, and God alone!"

Christ, at God's right hand victorious,
You will judge the world you made;
Lord, in mercy help your servants
For whose freedom you have paid:
Raise us up from dust to glory,
Guard us from all sin today;
King enthroned above all praises,
Save your people, God, we pray.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

Like the deer that yearns for running streams, so my soul is yearning for you, my God; my soul is thirsting for God, the living God.

COMMUNION MOTET (9:30) - Sung by Choir

Sicut cervus - Palestrina

Sicut cervus desiderat ad fontes aquarum, ita desiderat anima mea ad te, Deus.

*As the deer desireth the water-brooks, so longeth my soul
after thee, O Lord. (English translation)*

COMMUNION HYMN:

Be Still, My Soul - # 451, v. 1-3

Be still, my soul: the Lord is on thy side!
Bear patiently the cross of grief or pain;
Leave to thy God to order and provide;
In ev'ry change He faithful will remain.
Be still my soul: thy best, thy heav'nly Friend
Through thorny ways leads to a joyful end.

Be still, my soul: thy God doth undertake
To guide the future as He has the past:
Thy hope, thy confidence let nothing shake;
All now mysterious shall be bright at last.
Be still my soul: the waves and winds still know
His voice who ruled them while He dwelt below.

Be still, my soul: begin the song of praise
on earth, believing, to thy Lord on high;
acknowledge Him in all thy words and ways,
so shall He view thee with a well-pleased eye.
Be still, my soul: the Sun of life divine
through passing clouds shall but more brightly shine.

RECESSIONAL HYMN:

Praise, My Soul, the King of Heaven - #716, v. 1 & 2

Praise, my soul, the king of heaven;
To his feet thy tribute bring;
Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven,
Evermore his praises sing.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Praise the everlasting King.

Praise him for his grace and favor
To our fathers in distress;
Praise him still the same as ever,
Slow to chide, and swift to bless.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Glorious in his faithfulness.

The Extraordinary Form of the Roman Rite

Sixteenth Sunday After Pentecost

Processional Hymn:

There's a Wideness in God's Mercy - #791, v. 1 & 3

There's a wideness in God's mercy,
like the wideness of the sea.
There's a kindness in His justice,
which is more than liberty.
There is plentiful redemption
in the blood that has been shed;
There is joy for all the members
in the sorrows of the Head.

For the love of God is broader than the measures of man's mind.
And the heart of the Eternal
is most wonderfully kind.
If our love were but more simple,
we should take Him at His Word,
and our hearts would rest forgiven
in the mercy of the Lord.

OUR COMMUNITY

1894 - 2019

125 Years of Beauty and Catholic
Worship in the Richmond District

Our parish was founded in 1894, the Mother Church of the Richmond District. As we were the closest parish to the ocean at the time, the bishop named our community for Mary, Star of the Sea. Let us prepare our church for her 125th anniversary next autumn by giving her a fresh paint job, more attractive flooring, and a general sprucing-up for all that has become worn-down over the years! We renovate our homes every fifteen or twenty years, so let us all pitch in to give our Lord's house a brighter and newer demeanor. We hope to raise $500,000 to paint inside and out, polish and repair, clean and touch-up. It's God's house. It's our house!

Star of the Sea Preschool Openings

Star of the Sea Preschool currently has part and full-time openings for children 2.5 to 5 years old. We provide a Montessori environment where children can choose activities they are drawn to, and we teach the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd.

Recognizing that childhood is a critical period in human development, Star of the Sea Preschool provides an environment in which children can grow and develop at their own rate, develop a positive self-image, learn to express emotion in an appropriate way, act on their environment, develop a sense of responsibility, and learn to trust those around them.

The Star of the Sea Preschool faculty and administrators work closely with the Elementary staff to insure a smooth transition to Kindergarten at Star Elementary as well as with other public and private programs.

Star of the Sea Preschool is fully accredited by WCEA (<http://www.westwcea.org/>)

STEWARDSHIP a way of life

Stewardship Reflection

September 9, 2018

23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Did not God choose those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom that he promised to those who love him?" (James 2:5)

What is more important - being rich in faith or rich in possessions? Society teaches us that possessions are most important. God teaches a different lesson. When we are rich in faith, we keep God first in all things and realize that material things really don't matter and that it's more important to share with those who have less.

Our Lady of Fatima traveling statue was honored at Star of the Sea Church last Saturday with a beautiful, well-attended Mass followed by a Rosary prayer. Our parishioners faithfully celebrated the First Saturday of the month to venerate our Lady. In the picture above Elizabeth, Thelma, Dana, Martha and Fr. John Chung who celebrated the Mass.

Another special event took place last Saturday, September 1st at St. Albert's Priory in Oakland. A Mass was celebrated for the first profession of vows of five Dominican brothers, one of them was our dear friend Br. Elias (Brendon Ford), who was surrounded by his family and friends. In the picture above our Pastor Fr. Joseph Illo, Br. Elias, Mariella, Beth, Clarisse, and Martin Ford.

PARISH STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

Almighty and Eternal God, we thank you for everything we have and are. We believe that everything is a grace from your fatherly providence. Most of all, we thank You for Jesus, your Son and our Redeemer, who shows the way to eternal life through his Passion, Death, and Resurrection. Our Lord was the perfect steward of your gifts, receiving only to give, and giving only to receive.

Filled with the burning desire to be His disciples, we long to imitate the life of Your Christ. With grateful hearts we offer our prayers, our talents, and our material resources in the same spirit of trustful surrender, by the grace of Jesus Christ, in the Unity of the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen.
