November 11, 2018 Thirty Second Sunday in Ordinary Time (665 in Red Missal)
Twenty Fifth Sunday After Pentecost (814 and 259 in the Black Missal)

To mark All Souls Day, Our 3rd grade teacher set up an altarcito in her classroom with pictures of students' deceased family members. Inspired by her devotion, I set up flowers and candles around our Lady's altar in the church. I invite you to place photographs of your faithful departed at this altar and light a candle. I've already placed a photograph of my Polish grandmother, Helen Kaminska Illo. We called her Nana. I will light a candle and say a prayer for her every day this month. My Nana immigrated from

Warsaw to New York with her mother and younger sister in 1905. Her father, a Polish military officer, followed later. As they were quite poor, especially during the Great Depression, my Nana learned how to live well in simplicity. She passed this wisdom on to her son, and both my father and my Nana taught us children how to live well with little. My Nana died in 1988.

Not Enough Money? All my life I've heard people complaining about the economy. The real problem with our economy, however, is not too little money but too much. We live poorly because we have too much disposable income. Let's take cellphones as an example.

My Nana and my Dad taught us children to use things until they are truly used up. I've had my phone for six years, but the other day it finally bit the dust when its screen shattered. I went down to Verizon where a nice young man helped me. He showed me about a dozen phones that ran between $800 to $1000. He politely explained all their features, which impressed me. "Do you have anything a bit less expensive?" I asked. We do, he said. He brought out two phones from the back room, second-tier models which looked just like the others but at a third the price. I got one for $250, and it's ten times better than my last phone. I was showing this sleek new device to a friend, who mentioned how expensive phones have become. You have to buy a new one every year, and they are over $900 these days!" I could see Nana waving a finger at my friend. Who says you need a new phone every year? And why do you have to buy the top of the line?

Nana had an old car with no bells and whistles. "It gets me to the supermarket and the church. It has four wheels and a honker horn. That's all I know about my car," she would say. Every day I light a candle in front of my Nana's picture and say a prayer for her, and she says a prayer for me. Thanks, Nana, for helping me save all that money on my phone, and for living more simply than they say is healthy for me! Fr. Joseph Illo

EVENTS

The Sunday Scriptures

by Fr. Joseph Illo Widow's Mite (1 Kings 17: 10-16, Hebrews 9: 24-28, Mark 12: 38-44) Our Lord praises the poor widow who puts two pennies into the temple offering box. "She's given more!" he says enthusiastically. This week I will ask you to make a stewardship commitment of ... not your treasure but your talent. I will ask you to give some of your energy and personal gifts away to others in service. I asked a young mother the other day to sing in our choir after I heard her sing at a prayer service. "But my voice is not professional!" she said. Well, neither was the widow's mite a "professional" amount of support. But give what you have and Jesus will multiply it. Maybe this young woman should not sing in our choir, but certainly she should consider offering her voice to God by auditioning.

Guide Me, O Thou Great Redeemer - #547, v. 1 & 2

Guide me, O Thou great Redeemer,
Pilgrim through this barren land;
I am weak, but Thou art mighty,
Hold me with Thy powerful hand;
Bread of heaven, bread of heaven
Feed me till I want no more;
Feed me till I want no more.
Open now the crystal fountain

Whence the healing stream doth flow;
Let the fire and cloudy pillar
Lead me all my journey through:
Strong deliverer, strong deliverer;
Be Thou still my strength and shield;
Be Thou still my strength and shield.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me
repose, near restful waters he leads me.

COMMUNION ANTHEM (9:30) - Sung by Choir

My shepherd is the living Lord - Tomkins

*My shepherd is the living Lord
nothing therefore I need:
In pastures fair, with waters calm
he sets me for to feed.*

*He did convert and glad my soul,
and brought my mind in frame:
To walk in paths of righteousness,
For his most holy name.*

*Yea though I walk in vale of death
yea I will fear none ill:
The rod, thy staff doth comfort me,
and thou art with me still.*

*And in the presence of my foes,
my table thou shalt spread:
Thou shalt O Lord fill full my cup
and eke anoint my head.*

*Through all my life thy favour is,
so frankly showed to me:
That in thy house for ever more
my dwelling place shall be.*

COMMUNION HYMN:

My Shepherd Will Supply My Need - #634, v. 1 & 3

My Shepherd will supply my need,
The Lord God is his name.
In pastures green he makes me feed
Beside the living stream.
He brings my wandering spirit back
When I forsake his ways;
And leads me, for his mercy's sake,
In paths of truth and grace.

The sure provisions of my God
Attend me all my days;
O may thy house be my abode
And all my work be praise!
There would I find a settled rest,
While others go and come;
No more a stranger or a guest,
But like a child at home.

RECESSIONAL HYMN

Eternal Father, Strong to Save - #518

Eternal Father, strong to save,
Whose arm doth bind the restless wave,
Who bidd'st the mighty ocean deep
Its own appointed limits keep:
O hear us when we cry to thee
For those in peril on the sea.

O Trinity of love and pow'r,
Our brethren shield in danger's hour;
From rock and tempest, fire and foe,
Protect them where-so-e'er they go;
Thus evermore shall rise to thee
Glad praise from air and land and sea.

The Extraordinary Form of the Roman Rite

Twenty Fifth Sunday After Pentecost - Resumed 5th Sunday After Epiphany

Processional Hymn:

O God of Love, O King of Peace - #660

O God of love, O King of peace,
Make wars throughout the world to cease;
Our greed and sinful wrath restrain;
Give peace, O God, give peace again!

Whom shall we trust, but thee, O Lord?
Where rest but on thy faithful word?
None ever called on thee in vain;
Give peace, O God, give peace again!

Where saints and angels dwell above,
All hearts are joined in holy love;
O bind us in that heav'nly chain;
Give peace, O God, give peace again!

Come, almighty to deliver,
Let us all thy life receive;
Suddenly return and never,
Nevermore your temples leave.
Thee we would be always blessing,
Serve thee as thy hosts above,
Pray, and praise thee without ceasing,
Glory in thy perfect love.

OUR COMMUNITY

A Call to Stewardship

When Fr. Illo called upon our parishioners to focus on Stewardship, Carol Tai, daughter of Felix and Lucy Tai, asked herself how she could contribute her time, talent or treasure to better our parish.

Carol, a Realtor for 40+ years in San Francisco, decided that she would donate up to 20% of her real estate commissions to the Star Painting Project Fund when parishioners use her service in buying or selling real estate.

Carol's generous contribution was formed out of love for the parish after attending Star of the Sea Elementary School from first through eighth grades. If you are currently in the real estate market, please reach out to Carol Tai Endo at Century 21 Real Estate Alliance Inc. and let her know that you are also a Star of the Sea parishioner and she will donate to our restoration efforts. She can be reached by cell phone at 415-732-9021 or by email at ctendo@gmail.com.

Star of the Sea Preschool Openings

Star of the Sea Preschool currently has part and full-time openings for children 2.5 to 5 years old, where children can choose activities they are drawn to, and we teach the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd. For more information, please contact Jacqueline Paras at jparas@staroftheseasf.com.

Our parish was founded in 1894, the Mother Church of the Richmond District. As we were the closest parish to the ocean at the time, the bishop named our community for Mary, Star of the Sea. Let us prepare our church for her 125th anniversary next autumn by giving her a fresh paint job, more attractive flooring, and a general sprucing-up for all that has become worn-down over the years! We renovate our homes every fifteen or twenty years, so let us all pitch in to give our Lord's house a brighter and newer demeanor. We hope to raise $500,000 to paint inside and out, polish and repair, clean and touch-up. It's God's house. It's our house!

TALENT IN SERVICE

Once we start to get serious about the First Great Commandment, to “love God with all our heart, mind, and strength” through a deep and consistent prayer life, we can then get serious about the Second Great Commandment: “to love one’s neighbor as oneself.” No one who deeply loves Christ can be unmoved by other people’s needs, or fail to see Jesus in even annoying people. The great saints, “athletes of prayer,” were also naturally “athletes of service.” Again, from our friend Mother Teresa: “Our love for the poor is only the fruit of our love for God.” She began her service to the poor at 5:20am every morning in the Chapel with her sisters in front of the tabernacle. From this deep prayer life a life of loving service naturally followed. Service-loving kindness--always follows love of God. - Fr. Joseph Illo.

Stewardship Reflection

November 11, 2018

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

“I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they all contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, her whole living.” (Mark 12:43-44)

Jesus gets right to the point - we are all called to give money to support the mission of the Church, regardless of our circumstance. No gift is too small or insignificant! Giving money to support the mission of our local parish is a matter of our faith, just like praying and participating in parish ministries. When you make a financial offering, is it from your “first fruits” or from what is “left over”?

EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

“You must propagate veneration of the Most Blessed Sacrament with all your might, for the devotion to the Holy Eucharist is the queen of all devotions.” Pope Benedict XVI
