Eucharistic Adoration

Archbishop Cordileone will consecrate our Eucharistic Chapel at 3pm on March 25. The Chapel will be placed under the protection of St. Joseph, in the parish of Our Lady, for the purpose praying with Jesus Christ, day and night. I cannot begin to tell you the blessings that come to a community that dedicates itself to Eucharistic adoration. In my last parish, we began adoration within a year, and the Masses began to fill up. We had to add three Masses over ten years. Five men entered the seminary, and three into the convent in that time. Weekly offertory doubled; we doubled our parish campus with the purchase of three large buildings. We had the largest RCIA program in the diocese; we opened a food dispensary for the poor, a bookstore, a library, and a youth center. The blessings went on and on. If there is one thing I can do for our parish in our time here, it will be to establish Eucharistic adoration.

Our Lenten Mission

Fr. Victor Warkulwiz comes to us this week from the Apostolate for Perpetual Adoration to preach our Lenten Mission. He actually has a PhD in physics and entered the priesthood later in life to travel the country establishing perpetual adoration in parishes. It is the Catholic custom to drop everything during Lent for the annual Mission, so I urge you to make the effort to attend either the 9am or 6pm talks this Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday. I need all your help to establish adoration in San Francisco, so please make every effort to join me at our Mission.

In Support of our School Teachers

Another great blessing for our community is Star of the Sea School, led by our beloved principal, Terry Hanley. Last week I signed all the faculty contracts for another year, and look forward to working with these fine people. A parish school brings the light and warmth of Christ to all who might never come to Mass or adoration. May God bless our dear teachers and principal in this great work of Our Lord here at Star!

Welcome Mariella!

We welcome Mariella Zevallos, one of our preschool teachers, who will serve as stewardship coordinator for the parish. Here she is at our recent snow camping trip with the young adults. —Fr. Joseph Illo frilloblog.com

NEWS

The Sunday Scriptures

by Fr. Joseph Illo

The Transfiguration [Genesis 12:1-4, 2 Timothy 1:8-10, Matthew 17:1-9] Today, the Second Sunday of Lent, we see Our Divine Lord as He really is in heaven, transfigured before our eyes. Let us try to see him in this way even on earth, in the humble little white Host, as He truly is, Lord of Heaven and Earth, King of Glory!

Perpetual Adoration Chapel Dedication Time Change!

We have wonderful news! The Archbishop is going to come to our chapel dedication. This is going to require us to make a bit of a last minute change on the time of our events in order to accommodate his very busy schedule. This event will still take place on March 25th. Here is the new schedule:

- 3pm: Archbishop Salvatore Cordileone dedicates the chapel, blesses the statues, etc.
- 3:15pm: Eucharistic Procession
- 4:30pm: Mass of Thanksgiving
- 5:30pm Reception in the Auditorium

Very sorry for the last minute change, but we are so very grateful that the Archbishop wants to be a part of our ceremonies. We're very honored to have him!

Archdiocesan Annual Appeal

If you did not make a pledge or give a contribution to the Annual Appeal last weekend, please take time to do so today. We invite everyone to share a portion of God's blessings with others by supporting the Annual Appeal. No gift is too small (or too big). Please give from the heart. We hope for 100% participation of our parish this year. Thank you for your support of our Archdiocesan ministries and services.

Safety Course for Volunteers

If you regularly volunteer at Star of the Sea, please sign up for our new annual safety course. Our friends from the Archdiocese will drive out here. We don't have a date and time yet but would like to hear about your availability. Please go to <https://goo.gl/5sZeSI> to show your interest

Limited Office on Fridays

Effective this upcoming Friday, our office will operate on a limited staff on Fridays on a provisional basis for one month. Father Joseph, Martin, Claire, Ellen, and Thelma will not be available in person nor on the phone. The office will still be staffed for messages, Mass intentions, general questions, and emergencies. As you know, our parish has been very active these days and our office staff needs a day to catch up on piles of work that require that there be no distractions. Thanks for your understanding! Also, please note that our bookkeeper, Thelma, will be out for a several weeks as she recuperates from foot surgery. Please be sure to give Ellen Torkelson, our HR Woman, a big hug and a thank you for taking on extra tasks in Thelma's absence even though she already has a very packed schedule at both the parish and the school. Thank you, Ellen! Get well, Thelma!

Updated Easter Schedule

Holy Thursday: Mass of the Lord's Supper 6:30pm

Good Friday: Stations of the Cross 12:30pm, Divine Mercy Chaplet 3pm, Mass of the Pre-sanctified and Veneration of the Cross 6:30pm

Holy Saturday: Easter Vigil in the Extraordinary Form 5pm, Mass in the Ordinary Form with Baptisms of our RCIA Candidates 8:30pm followed by an Easter Feast!

Easter Sunday: 8am, 9:30am, 11:30am

STEWARDSHIP

Stewardship is a way of life, a life of accountability and responsibility acknowledging God as Creator and Giver of all. Stewardship involves responsible management of our God-given resources of Time (that is, time spent in prayer before God), Talent (our God-given abilities), and Treasure (our God-given wealth). Stewards as disciples of Jesus Christ see themselves as caretakers of all God's gifts.

Shroud of Turin

Join us on April 2nd at 6pm in the Star of the Sea Auditorium for a special presentation from award winning author Jack Sacco on the history of and science behind the Shroud of Turin. Admission is free. More details TBA.

Parish Mission!

Our special guest, Fr. Victor Warkulwiz, M.S.S. from the Missionary Priests of the Blessed Sacrament will be our guest and speaking at all Masses the weekend of Mar. 11th-12th and Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday 9am and 7pm on the benefits and necessity of Perpetual Adoration in our parish. Fr. Warkulwiz resides in the Archdiocese of PA and has taken his message of Perpetual Adoration to several hundred parishes in 47 states, Canada and elsewhere. Fr. Victor has dedicated himself to visiting a parish every weekend where the desire to establish or maintain Perpetual Adoration has been expressed. The fruits of his labor have been bountiful and include a spiritual renewal within each parish. Please remember that Perpetual Adoration is not just for a day, a week, a month or year. Rather it is for always. It is not temporary, but ongoing, lasting, permanent. St. John Paul II said: "Our essential commitment in life is to grow spiritually in the climate of the Holy Eucharist." There is no greater love given to Catholics than Christ present in the Eucharist. Please do not miss hearing Fr. Warkulwiz. His homily is most inspiring and he has touched the hearts of thousands of Catholics in bringing them to a deeper understanding and love of the Blessed Sacrament. "Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive honor, glory and praise..."
