Ad Orientem Yes!

Last week I hosted a Q&A on the priests' facing the altar during Mass. All were in favor but one who was reserving judgment for the moment. It was a fruitful discussion, however, and after we make the change on March 1 we will have another Q&A on March 12 at 10:30am.

AAA

We should all have the Archdiocesan Annual Appeal brochures in our mailboxes by now. I do believe in what our Archbishop and his curia are doing downtown, and I do want to get behind our seminary, our Catholic schools, and our archdiocesan servicex to the incarcerated, immigrants, homeless, and other needy folks. Our goal this year will be $67,000, which should be a snap for our generous parish. I plan to give 1% again this year ($670). Will you join me in a gift of any size?

Lent Is Coming

Lent is only a few days away, so get ready! Prayer, fasting, and almsgiving are not easy in a culture like ours, which constantly tempts us with "it's my party and I'll cry if I want to." Our time, our money, and our bodies are not our own. We do best when we practice good stewardship of what is entrusted to us. The holy season of Lent is given to us to do some spring cleaning. Let's get healthier this Lent by using our time, our money, and our bodies to serve God, even more than we already are. If you haven't yet signed up for a Eucharistic holy hour, that would be a good start. While you're at it, make a gift to the chapel, in which you will soon be doing that hour! We need around another $50K to complete it.

NEWS

The Sunday Scriptures

by Fr. Joseph Illo

Love your enemies [Leviticus 10:1-2, 17-18, 1 Cor. 3:16-23, Matthew 5:38-48] When Pope John Paul visited Palestine, a large billboard was posted above his Mass: "Love Your Enemies." So Jesus commands us in the Gospel today. Some people have really hurt us (think of an ex spouse or a ruthless employer), and we can't imagine loving them. But we must, for God does not command the impossible. Love your enemies, and pray for them... the secret is to pray for them—you can't go on hating someone, or fearing him, if you pray every day for him.

Gabriel Project Info Table

The Gabriel Project is a great way to show our community that we care about pregnant mothers in need and that there is no reason for any mother to feel helpless and alone. To learn more about how you can volunteer, please stop by the pro-life table after Mass on Feb 19th when the coordinator for the Archdiocese, Janet Healy, will be happy to speak with you.

Restoring an Ancient Tradition

Starting Ash Wednesday, all Masses at Star of the Sea will be offered facing liturgical East (meaning facing the Lord). But perhaps you would like to know why we are going back to this ancient practice. Father Joseph and Claire Herrick cordially invite you to an open Q&A session, which will take place on March 12 at 10:30pm in the Parish Office.

Thursday Adoration Delay

Due to the chapel construction, other activities and limited church space, Thursday exposition and adoration will have to begin after our new chapel opens, which is scheduled for March 19th. Logistically, this was premature and we truly apologize for any misinformation and/or any inconvenience that you may have experienced, if you have come out of your way to adore Our Lord.

5:30 Mass Time moves to 5pm

The 5:30pm Latin Mass is moving back a half hour and will now start at 5pm. We hope this will be convenient for you.

Star of the Sea will premier this film on the life of St. Ignatius of Loyola on Saturday March 4th at 6pm on the big screen! Read the snippet below to learn how to buy tickets

STEWARDSHIP

Stewardship is a way of life, a life of accountability and responsibility acknowledging God as Creator and Giver of all. Stewardship involves responsible management of our God-given resources of Time (that is, time spent in prayer before God), Talent (our God-given abilities), and Treasure (our God-given wealth). Stewards as disciples of Jesus Christ see themselves as caretakers of all God's gifts.

Lenten Mission

In anticipation of our brand new adoration chapel opening, this year's Lenten parish mission will be focused on adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. We invited Fr. Warkulwiz to preach on the importance of adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. Of course, there will be no charge to attend and it will take place within the main church. You'll get a taste of the parish mission on Saturday March 11th and Sunday March 12th as our guest preacher will preach at all our regularly scheduled weekend Masses (except the Saturday 8:30am Daily Mass and the Sunday 5:30pm Mass) There will be two opportunities per day beginning March 13th until March 15th to experience the actual parish mission at both 9am and 7pm.

Pray, Plan, Protect!

Need help with time management? Join us as we pray before the Blessed Sacrament for 20 minutes on Saturday at 11am, then meet at the parish office at 11:20am for 30 minutes of planning the rest of the week.
