Extraordinary Form: Fifth Sunday after Easter (p641 in Black Missal)

Knights of Columbus

Last week fourteen men of the parish pledged themselves to fraternal service as Knights of Columbus (KOC), and another five men are reactivating. Star of the Sea Parish has now taken the first step in forming the first KOC Council in her 123-year history. At least five more men could not make last week's ceremony but will pledge next month. With an initial 25 men strong, the Knights here at Star are prepared to strengthen their bond of Christian brotherhood through prayer, fellowship, and service. The first task I give them is to provide our First Sunday barbecues, and be available for other parish dinners throughout the year. The second task I give to our Knights is to begin enthroning the Sacred Heart in parish homes. If you would like your home blessed with a painting of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, call the parish office. The crisis of our culture is essentially a crisis of fatherhood. I am most hopeful that these charter members of our new Council will provide an essential fraternity for the men of our parish. We entrust this new Council to St. Joseph, model of manly fatherhood, and name it the St. Joseph Council of the Knights of Columbus.

Our Lady of Fatima Last week marked the hundredth anniversary of Our Lady's first appearance at Fatima. Pope Francis canonized the two visionaries Jacinta and Francisco Marto that day. This Wednesday (May 24) our parish will host the national Pilgrim Statue from 8am to 8pm. I will offer a noon Mass in her honor and lead us in a rosary procession around the block. Please join us, for the crisis in our time is also a crisis of womanhood. We have forgotten our Holy Mother—remember the days when families and Catholic schools and priests and parishes would pray the rosary together at least once a week? Let us take Mary into our homes and hearts again!

The Sunday Scriptures

Reasons for Hope (Acts 2:14, 22-23, 1 Peter 1: 17-21, Luke 24:13-35)

The Church prepares us for Ascension Thursday this week and Pentecost next week. "Always be ready to give a reason for your hope," St. Peter urges us today. We will not be discouraged because Christ reigns at the Right Hand of God, and the Holy Spirit dwells within us. Always be ready to tell anyone who asks why you are not afraid of all those things others fear, and why you are deeply joyful. The Reason is Jesus Christ.

Star School Principal's Note

by Terry Hanley

Years ago the Star faculty attended an in-service for teachers. The following is from the Markkula Center for Applied Ethics at Santa Clara University. I must confess that we added one of the rules for students being successful to make it more accurately reflect our mission and philosophy statements.

1. Show up for class
2. Be on time.
3. Start promptly.
- 4 Complete tasks
5. Follow directions.
6. Get along with adults.
7. Get along with students.
8. Practice good hygiene.
9. Remember to treat everyone as a child of God.

It would be great to get a straight A report card (or so I've been told) but the simple fact is that the best measure of student success is to follow the list above.

Retrofit Meeting

Our $70,000 Master Plan is almost finished, which will determine how we retrofit or rebuild our school and other aging structures. To give your thoughts on the best way to rebuild our campus, come to a workshop with our architects on May 24 at 5:30pm in the auditorium. If you don't attend, you cannot complain when the constructions crews move in!

Adoration Info Fair

Calling all adorers! We are a beautiful community that is making perpetual adoration a reality and so it is time to meet your adoration family, see the people who will sub for you, share prayerful habits during your Adoration hour, learn about practical parish procedures for emergencies, signing in, bathroom breaks, and what to do when the next adorer does not show up. Save the date! Saturday, June 24th at 2pm and come meet your fellow adorers.

Pray for Marriages

This Wednesday, three engaged couples are attending a Theology of Marriage class. They are asked to think of 3 questions from the class and will later invite Father Illo over for dinner to discuss them. Please keep these beautiful couples in your prayers as they continue to prepare for this Sacrament.

Parish BBQ is Back!

Thanks to the Kefu Family, next week after the 11:30 Mass we will have a Parish BBQ - Polynesian bbq with sapaui noodles, rice and sweet potato salad.
