Extraordinary Form: Fourteenth Sunday after Pentecost (p764 in Black Missal)

Terry Hanley At 1:15am on September 5, our dear principal Terrence Hanley passed from time into eternity. I ask your prayers especially for our school children who must face death in all its terrifying suddenness and finality. Terry's jovial ebullience will no longer reassure students and parents at morning assemblies; his beloved voice will no longer echo through the hallways nor his trademark Star sweatshirt appear in classroom doorways, encouraging students to persevere in their scholarship. The last time many of us saw Terry was at Back to School Night on Thursday. Terry was speaking with his usual mix of humor and gravity, but his speech seemed labored. As Fr. John took the podium, Terry whispered to me "I feel really bad—need to get back home, so you close up please." He was three days at the hospital, where he received all the sacraments of the Church to prepare him for God. Tolerance and Love, one of Terry's last words at Back to School Night made a deep impression on me. In our school, he said, we hope for more than "tolerance." Tolerance is when you have to be nice to someone you can't stand, or eat vegetables you find disgusting. We want to love each other, not merely tolerate each other. I think those courageous and loving words from a man who has given his entire adult life to Catholic education sum up his vocation. No matter how mischievous or difficult a student was, Terry loved them all. A student who had broken some rule or perhaps bullied another would be called into Terry's office. Terry had a gift for correcting that student with firmness but also gentle humor, so that the student would want to be good after his interview with Mr. Hanley. Terry didn't just "tolerate" those he found difficult or "manage" human situations; he made daily and at times heroic efforts to love everyone. It was his gift from God, and he exercised that gift. May we imitate his virtue, finding a way to love everyone, especially those we are tempted to merely tolerate. May some of Terry's spirit remain with all of us at Star of the Sea.

NEWS

The Sunday Scriptures

by Fr. Joseph Illo Two or Three

(Ezekiel 33:7-9, Romans 13:8-10, Matthew 18:15-20)

Jesus promises us in today's Gospel that "where two or three are gathered in His name, He is with us." It's so beautiful to see three or four gathered in the adoration chapel "in His name." So beautiful to see 60 or 70 gathered "in His name" at Tuesday holy hours. Jesus is really with us, if we gather together with Him!

Consecration Prayer

"O Most Blessed Virgin Mary, when you appeared in Fatima one hundred years ago, you desired that the Church should take refuge in your Immaculate Heart as a means that leads to Jesus, who is the way to the Father. Heeding your call, we entrust ourselves, our families, and our Archdiocese to the care and protection of your Immaculate Heart. As we prepare ourselves, through humble expressions of devotion, for the Consecration of our Archdiocese to your Immaculate Heart, inspire in us the longing to know, love, and follow your beloved son Jesus Christ. We ask that you help us imitate your spirit of generosity in doing God's will and your example of serving others selflessly, so that, having found God's abundant grace here on earth, we may one day be led to the everlasting joys of Heaven. Amen"
