October 15th, 2017 Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time (p622 in Red Missal) Extraordinary Form: Nineteenth Sunday after Pentecost (p797 in Black Missal)

Consecration. Last Saturday I was most encouraged to see so many of you at our Cathedral for the Archbishop's Consecration to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. Our parish and our archdiocese has made good progress in evangelizing the culture, but we have so far to go. The vast majority of our society is post-Christian, and we practicing Catholics also breathe this air. Our faith is so weak. Most of our children no longer practice the faith--most of my children (all the Catholics within my parish boundaries) no longer do even the minimum necessary (Mass every Sunday). Our faith has become largely superficial, without the power to save our souls or even affect our daily lives. Like many priests, I am tempted to to give up and become a hermit somewhere. And I say: Our only hope is Our Lady. Our only hope is consecrating ourselves, and our city, to her Immaculate Heart. Only she can help us. Which is why I see last week's Consecration as so vital in this struggle. My heartfelt thanks to our dear Archbishop, and all of you who attended.

Consecration Homily Archbishop Cordileone preached a powerful message at the Consecration Mass. Here are his three main points. "Our Lady at Fatima called the children to prayer, penance, and adoration. I repeat that call to you: I call every Catholic in the Archdiocese of San Francisco to pray the rosary every day, as she asked, and the family rosary once a week. I call every Catholic in the Archdiocese of San Francisco to fast every Friday of the year, as she asked, giving up some food such as meat, or drink, or sweet, or even a whole meal. I call every Catholic in the Archdiocese of San Francisco to adore silently before the Eucharistic Presence of Jesus once a week, as she asked--fifteen minutes, a half hour, and hour. I am calling every Catholic in the Archdiocese of San Francisco to these simple but most effective practices, as Our Lady asked, for the conversion of sinners and for peace in the world.

The Sunday Scriptures

by Fr. Joseph Illo Inclusion

(Isaiah 25:6-10 Philippians 4:12-14, 19-20 Matthew 22:1-14) In today's Gospel parable Jesus invites everyone to his wedding feast. He excludes no one, but many exclude themselves. In the parable, the guests' refusal to attend his banquet "enrages" the King. We should do everything we can to get those who do not attend the King's banquet back to Mass. And we who do attend should make sure we are attired properly, both in our Sunday best clothing and having made a good confession to clothe our souls in purity.

Star of the Sea Oktoberfest

Put on your lederhosen and dirndl! On Saturday November 11th after the 4:30pm Mass, the Knights of Columbus will host our first Oktoberfest featuring live polka music, dancing, games, and fun! Tickets are $25 for adults (comes with a beer and sausage), $5 for kids and teens (comes with a hotdog and soda), and children 5 and under are free.

New 5pm Mass Choir Rehearsal Times

Choir rehearsals were on Wednesdays from 7-9pm. Rehearsals will now take place on Mondays 7-9pm beginning October 9th. The Sunday 3:45-4:45pm rehearsal will remain unchanged.

Principals Letter

by Theresa Poon

How wonderful it was to welcome Fr. Illo back with a very successful Blessing of the Animals on St. Francis of Assisi's Feast Day on Oct 4! We look forward to working together as we build our Star community, upholding the charism of our school's founding Sisters of St. Joseph of Corondelet, who were inspired by Jesus' invitation: to love God and to love our neighbor. So, in this spirit, we invite all parishioners to attend Star of the Sea School's Stella Maris Mass and Gala on Nov. 4, as we honor two beloved members of our Star family, Sr. Katie O'Shea, of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Corondelet and Ms. Susan O'Hara, an alumni parent, for their service to our community. For more information, please email: fundraising@staroftheseasf.com or see staroftheseassf.com for more details.

Archbishop Cordileone's Homily for the Consecration

"For 100 years we ignored the message of Fatima; or, perhaps, it is not so much the message we ignored, for we are well aware of the warnings and the history that resulted. Rather, it is the requests we ignored. But we cannot afford to do so any longer. We have to pay attention. We have to do what she told the waiters at Cana: do whatever he tells you. And what does Christ tell us to do? He reveals this in the requests our Lady made at Fatima. It is now time to heed those requests. We might not have the power to change world history, but we can change what happens in our own families and communities if we heed the message. This next century can be radically different from the last one, but only if we heed the message and respond to the requests."

Stewardship is a way of life, a life of accountability and responsibility acknowledging God as Creator and Giver of all. Stewardship involves responsible management of our God-given resources of Time (that is, time spent in prayer before God), Talent (our God-given abilities), and Treasure (our God-given wealth). Stewards as disciples of Jesus Christ see themselves as caretakers of all God's gifts.

Make Stewardship a Part of Your Life

Join us in this blessed effort. Our beloved pastor Fr. Joseph Illo, the Stewardship Committee and the parish staff are working together getting ready for the 2017 Parish Stewardship Renewal. October will be a busy month! We are starting a series of Formation Classes on the "Spirituality of Stewardship," designing a Ministry Catalog and Commitment Cards that soon will be mailed to your homes, and more information will be provided by Fr. Joseph who will talk about the Stewardship Renewal Campaign at all Masses in the coming weeks. Stewardship is a way of life!
