Fifth Sunday After Pentecost (Page 732 in the Black Missal)

Isolation on earth is hell, and hell is isolation: to be cut off, to feel the terrifying emptiness of rejection, to sense that one's own mother and father have no interest in one's life. The overused word "exclusion" and the contemporary acronym FOMO ("fear of missing out") manifest this essential fear of being left out. As healthy social structures collapse (especially the family and the "village"), technology promises to fill the vacuum. Corporations that are making lots of money on our loneliness tell us that a smartphone "connects" us to others. And yet, we are a city of isolated single people. Might I recommend a better way: religion. Of course, religion has a bad name these days, especially when some religious leaders are revealed as the most isolated of all people. But consider the very meaning of the word. "Religion" comes from the Latin re-ligare, literally to "re-tie" ("ligare" means to attach or connect, as in "ligament"). True religion reconnects us with God and each other, but it too has a cost. We must spend an hour in Church, in the presence of God and other people. We must also spend time and money on the "Domestic Church," meaning Mom, Dad, and the children. If you don't yet have a family (and God calls almost all of us to marriage), be faithful to some kind of godly community: a young adults group, a book club, a service group. Families, however, will always be the backbone of every village. I struggle every day to pastor a parish with so few families. The sense of isolation in our city parishes terrifies me. Every family is a treasure, which is why I am so grateful to those brave enough to get married and have children. The Feria family, for example, is a backbone to our church. Bud, Lorna, and their five children provide such a sense of stability. The Feria's have never given up on each other, and, in a declining Catholic culture, they have been a radiant Domestic Church at Star of the Sea for thirty-five years. Their youngest, Fergus, just received his First Holy Communion and gratefully opens his mouth each Sunday to receive Jesus at the 9:30 Mass. May God bless us with many families like theirs! Ryan and

Mary-Rose Verret are another family with five children. Authors of the Witness to Love marriage apostolate, they have given most of their adult lives to building up families. They will be staying at my parish this week while they speak to the Archdiocese and the famous Napa Institute. We are privileged to receive them!

"The priesthood is the Love of the heart of Jesus." - St. John Vianney

Why be a Priest?

Has your heart been pierced by the love of the Lord?

Priests bring God's love and grace to the world in a radical way. Through the sacraments and through preaching the Gospel, the priest stands as the corporal face of the Church, the face of Christ, supporting and caring for all He meets.

If you have a friendship with Jesus Christ, and wish to share His goodness with others; if you love the Catholic Church, and desire to help it flourish; if you value the gift of life, and desire to spend yours in service to an eternal cause, these desires can be fulfilled in a priestly vocation lived well. Recommended for the week

Last week's recomenation was Joseph of Nazareth, so this week we're recommending Mary of Nazareth. This film is an epic motion picture on the life of Mary from her childhood through the Resurrection of Jesus. Shot in HD, it was filmed in Europe with outstanding cinematography, a strong cast, and a majestic music score. After viewing this movie, Pope Benedict XVI said: "Mary of Nazareth is the woman of a full and total 'Here I am' to the Divine Will. In her 'yes' we find profound beatitude."

The Sunday Scriptures

by Fr. Joseph Illo The Good Samaritan

(Deut 30: 10-14, Col 1: 15-20, Luke 10: 25-37)

Today is my second favorite parable (after that of the Prodigal Son): the Good Samaritan. "Who is my neighbor" is the question that prompts Jesus to tell the tale. The word "neighbor" is from German, "Nachbar," meaning simply "the guy who happens to be near you." So: everyone is our neighbor. Everyone is Christ to us. Here's a practical suggestion: sit near another person at Sunday Mass, as if you appreciate their presence. Greet your "neighbor" after Mass, as if that person were Jesus himself. We are so lonely, but we can solve our isolation simply by treating our neighbor with love.

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

PROCESSIONAL HYMN 9:30am Mass
God, We Praise You - #540, vs 1 & 4

God, we praise you! God, we bless you!
God, we name you sov'reign Lord!
Mighty King whom angels worship,
Father, by your Church adored:
All creation shows your glory,
Heav'n and earth draw near your throne,
Singing, "Holy, holy, holy Lord of hosts, and God alone!"

Christ, at God's right hand victorious,
You will judge the world you made;
Lord, in mercy help your servants
For whose freedom you have paid:
Raise us up from dust to glory,
Guard us from all sin today;
King enthroned above all praises,
Save your people, God, we pray.

As for me, in justice I shall behold your face; I shall be filled with the vision of your glory.

To you, O Lord, I lift up my soul. O my God, in you I have trusted;

A New Commandment - Tallis

A new commandment give I unto you, saith the Lord, that ye love together, as I have loved you, that e'en so ye love one another. By this shall every man know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.

OFFERTORY HYMN

Lord of All Hopefulness - #622, vs. 1-3

Lord of all hopefulness,
Lord of all joy,
Whose trust, ever child-like,
No cares could destroy,
Be there at our waking,
And give us, we pray,
Your bliss in our hearts, Lord,
At the break of the day.

Lord of all eagerness, Lord of all faith,
Whose strong hands were skilled
At the plane and the lathe,
Be there at our labors,
And give us, we pray,
Your strength in our hearts, Lord,
At the noon of the day.

Lord of all kindness, Lord of all grace,
Your hands swift to welcome,
Your arms to embrace:
Be there at our homing,
And give us, we pray,
Your love in our hearts, Lord,
At the eve of the day.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

remains in me and I in him, says the Lord.

COMMUNION ANTHEM (9:30am) sung by Choir

Verily, Verily, I Say Unto You - Tallis

*Verily, verily, I say unto you, except ye eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, ye have not life in you.
Whoso eateth my flesh and drinketh my blood hath eternal life,
and I will raise him up at the last day (bis)
For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.
He that eateth my flesh and drinketh my blood
dwelleth in me, and I in him.*

COMMUNION HYMN

O Living Bread from Heaven - #670

O Living Bread from heaven,
How well You fed Your guest!
The gifts that You have given
Have filled my heart with rest.
Oh, wondrous food of blessing,
Oh, cup that heals our woes!
My heart, this gift possessing,
With praises overflows.
Lord Jesus, here you led me
Within your holiest place,
And here Yourself have fed me
With treasures of Your grace;
And You have freely given
What earth could never buy,
The bread of life from heaven,
That I may never die.

You gave me all I wanted;
This food can death destroy.
And You have freely granted
The cup of endless joy.
O Lord, I do not merit
The favor You have shown,
And all my soul and spirit
Bow down before Your throne.

Lord, grant me that, thus strengthened
With heav'nly food, while here
My course on earth is lengthened,
I serve with holy fear.
And when You call my spirit
To leave this world below,
I enter, through Your merit,
Where joys unmingled flow.

RECESSIONAL HYMN

Immortal, Invisible, God Only Wise - #578, v. 1, 3 & 4

Immortal, invisible, God only wise,
In light inaccessible hid from our eyes,
Most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days,
Almighty, victorious, thy great name we praise.

To all life thou givest, to both great and small;
In all life thou livest, the true life of all;
We blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree,
And wither and perish, but naught changeth thee.

Great Father of glory, pure Father of light,
Thine angels adore thee, all veiling their sight;
All praise we would render: O help us to see
'Tis only the splendor of light hideth thee.

SAINT MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL PRAYER

Saint Michael The Archangel, defend us in battle; be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray: and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust down to hell Satan and all the evil spirits who roam throughout the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

O God, Our Help in Ages Past - # 661, vs. 1-3 & 6

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home.

Under the shadow of thy throne
Thy saints have dwelt secure;
Sufficient is thine arm alone,
And our defense is sure.

Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received its frame,
From everlasting thou art God,
To endless years the same.

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be thou our guide while troubles last,
And our eternal home.

INTROIT Psalms 26: 7-9

Hear, O Lord, my voice with which I have cried to Thee: be Thou my helper, forsake me not, nor do Thou despise me, O God, my Savior. (Ps. 26: 1) The Lord is my light, and my salvation, whom shall I fear? Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Hear, O Lord, my voice with which I have cried to Thee: be Thou my helper, forsake me not, nor do Thou despise me, O God, my Savior.

RECESSIONAL HYMN

What Shall I Render to the Lord - #826, vs.1, 4 & 5

What shall I render to the Lord
For all his benefits to me?
How shall my soul, by grace restored,
Give worthy thanks, O Lord, to thee?

With thankful heart I offer now
My gift, and call upon God's name;
Before his saints I pay my vow
And here my gratitude proclaim.

Within his house, the house of prayer,
I dedicate myself to God;
Let all his saints his grace declare
And join to sound his praise abroad.

Stewardship Reflection

July 14, 2019

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Jesus said to him, 'Go and do likewise.'" Luke 10:37

This was Jesus' command at the end of the Good Samaritan story. Did you know that the Samaritans and Jews despised each other. The moral of the story is to love our neighbor. That means loving someone you may not know or someone that looks different than you or someone that you don't like. All without expecting anything in return.

EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

"The Church shows to everyone her Bridegroom in the radiant monstrance...Her friends are in adoration and her enemies tremble. Jesus shows Himself to all men; He gives His blessing to the good; He looks on sinners with compassion. He calls them and draws them to Himself. Will you remain cold and indifferent (in taking part in Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration)? No! If there are societies for the spreading of evil, you will form a society for the spreading of good, a society of adoration. Look upon the hour of adoration assigned to you as an hour in paradise. Go to your adoration as one would to heaven, to the divine banquet." - St. Peter Julian Eymard
