

Our Mission Statement:
To evangelize God's people beginning with the gift of the Holy Eucharist.

AUGUST 9, 2020 NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME TENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST (LATIN MASS)

St. Dominic and St. John Vianney This week is remarkable, especially for a parish that offers both the ordinary and extraordinary forms of the Mass. August 4 is St. John Vianney's feast day in the new calendar, but St. Dominic in the old calendar. August 8 is St. John Vianney in the old calendar, but St. Dominic in the new calendar. Did you follow that? The bottom line is that we get to celebrate both St. John Vianney and St. Dominic twice at Star of the Sea. Let us pray for our parish priests through the intercession of St. John Vianney and for our beloved Dominicans through the intercession of St. Dominic.

Master Building Plan Star of the Sea parish is blessed with a lot of real estate, but also many deferred capital projects. That means some buildings are in need of a few million in upgrades, but a smart building committee will find a way to leverage our real estate to fix the buildings. That is just what our new Building Committee is doing. Brendan Cody chairs the Committee, and members include Eva Muntean, Clarisse Siu, and Nathan Mitchell among others. The Committee has retained a local developer, Mark Conroe, whose Presidio Development Partners have built many projects in the Bay Area over 20 years. Mark will complete a feasibility study over the next 60 days to determine the best use of our property over the next 99 years. Stay tuned.

Reopening Our School Our second big project is to reopen our parish school in order to provide an authentically Catholic education for our young people. Our steering committee commissioned a feasibility study by VeraCruz Consultants, which was delivered to the Archdiocesan Department of Catholic Schools last month. We also submitted a plan for development and two financial models, all of which are being reviewed by the Archdiocese. The model of school we are proposing is uniquely suited to address families' needs in a post-Covid world, as well as preparing them in any age for professional and personal success. Stay tuned.

Our City's First Black Firefighter Sherman Tillman and his wife Mary Ellen have been members of our parish for many decades. Sherman came to San Francisco at age 7, but Mary Ellen's family has been at Star of the Sea for three generations. Sherman is a Captain in the San Francisco Fire Department, and currently president of the Black Firefighters Association. He led the effort to recognize our city's first black firefighter, Earl Gage Jr., by having a part of Willow Street, just down from our Cathedral, named after him. Mr. Gage suffered much racial discrimination in 1955 when he joined the department but, in Sherman's words, was a "man of God who tried to see the best in people despite their flaws...." You can read the entire inspiring article on Earl Gage in the June 30 Catholic San Francisco, www.catholic-sf.org.

The Sunday Scriptures

by Fr. Joseph Ilo) (1 Kgs 19: 9a, 11-13a; ROM 9: 1-5, Mt 14: 22-33). Fear Not the Wind The apostles are terrified to see Jesus walking on water in today's gospel, but he calms both their fears and the waves. Have you ever been in a storm at sea in a small boat. I have, and it's pretty scary. Peter panics at a blast of wind and begins to sink. Jesus says, grasping his hand, fear not the wind. I am here for you.

When I cried to the Lord He heard my voice, from them that draw near to me: and He humbled them, Who is before all ages, and remains forever: cast thy care upon the Lord, and He shall sustain thee. (Ps. 54: 2) Hear, O God, my prayer, and despise not my supplication; be attentive to me and hear me. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. When I cried to the Lord He heard my voice, from them that draw near to me: and He humbled them, Who is before all ages, and remains for ever: cast thy care upon the Lord, and He shall sustain thee.

O God who dost manifest Thine almighty power most chiefly in sparing and showing mercy: multiply upon us Thy mercy: that as we hasten towards Thy promises, Thou may make us partakers of the heavenly treasures. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who lives and reigns with Thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever.

Keep me, O Lord, as the apple of Thine eye: protect me under the shadow of Thy wings. Let my judgment come forth from Thy countenance: let Thine eyes behold the thing that is equitable. Alleluia, alleluia. (Ps. 64: 2) A hymn, O God, becometh Thee in Sion: and a vow shall be paid to Thee in Jerusalem. Alleluia.

To Thee, O Lord, have I lifted up my soul: in Thee, O my God, I put my trust, let me not be ashamed: neither let my enemies laugh at me: for none of them that wait on Thee shall, be confounded.

Let the appointed sacrifices be offered to Thee, O Lord: which Thou hast granted so to be offered to the honor of Thy Name, that they may themselves become healing remedies unto us. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who lives and reigns with Thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever.

Thou wilt accept the sacrifice of justice, oblations and holocausts, upon Thine altar, O Lord.

We beseech Thee, O Lord, our God, that in Thy goodness Thou wilt not deprive of Thine aid those whom Thou dost not cease to renew with Thy divine Sacraments. Through the same Lord Jesus Christ, Thy Son, Who lives and reigns with Thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever.
