

A Catholic Stewardship Parish

Our Mission is:
To evangelize God's people beginning with the gift of the Holy Eucharist

March 05, 2023 2nd Sunday of Lent (Pg 107 red missal). Second Sunday of Lent (Pg 330 Latin 1962 missal)

Hello Lent We had a bracing set of Ash Wednesday Masses last week, with more people in church than on Sunday. Everyone wants ashes, and one of our rather elegant and professional parishioners, who missed the ashes at the beginning of Mass, ran up to me in a panic after Mass, "Father Joseph! Father Joseph! I need ashes!" Ash Wednesday makes all of us—the rich and the poor, the young and the old, the Republicans and the Democrats—equal before God. Thank you all for "demanding" your ashes from us priests. One of our greatest joys every year is marking those crosses on your foreheads.

Silence I give up media for Lent, as much as I can and still do my work. The first few days of silence is the hardest; I wake up looking forward to a podcast, and instinctively reach for the radio to hear some music if nothing else is happening. I woke up on Ash Wednesday dreading the self-imposed emptiness. Usually I wash up in the morning to the sounds of either Mozart or a stimulating podcast, but for the next 40 days I will shave in silence; I will do my morning stretches in the still emptiness of a city before dawn. I will listen only to the Word of God before going downstairs and watch nothing more than the light quietly rising from the east. Fasting from food is essential, but fasting from noise is no less essential. Giving up sweets heals our bodies, but giving up noise heals our souls. Silence of the ears, silence of the eyes, silence of the touch: this purifies our souls

I'm convinced, to some degree demonic. The answer is ... silence. We must regain our peace. Soundplug, as much as you can.

AAA We begin our three-week Annual Archdiocesan Appeal this Sunday with layfolk speaking briefly after each Mass as to why they make a significant gift to the Appeal every year.

Our goal for 2023 is $125,000, which funds the works of the Archbishop and the Archdiocese, especially the seminary. Fr. Michael was the first to get his "1%" in ($1250), and he shamed me into getting my check to Thelma within a few hours. Please be as generous as you can, and we'll take care of this appeal in a few weeks, as we usually do.

Galas Speaking of being generous, I'm looking forward to two worthy fundraising galas: the Bella Clinic Gala on March 25, and the Stella Maris Academy Gala on April 29. Mark your calendars for some superb evenings.

Fr. Joseph Illo

The Sunday Scriptures

By Fr. Joseph Illo (Gen 12: 1-4a; 2 Tim 1: 8b-10; Mt 17: 1-9)

Transfiguration Today Our Lord is transfigured. Peter, James, and John see a hint of his glory, a glimpse of the beatific vision that awaits all of us if we remain faithful. At those points when Lent and Life is hardest, call to mind that glory, and hope for it! "It is good for us to be here!" said Peter. That's where I want to be too.

"Come to me, all who are weary, and I will give you rest." Matthew 11:28

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION 24/7

March 8th is the feast day of St. John of God. Growing up Christian, he lost his parents at a young age and became hired help as a shepard. Later, he entered the military where he lost his faith to debauchery. At aged 40, he returned to the faith. He had a vision of the Infant Jesus and was given the name John of God. He dedicated his life to serving and caring for the sick, and formed the Brothers Hospitallers of St. John of God. He is known to say, "With outstretched arms He begs us to turn toward Him, to weep for our sins and to become servants of love..." He died at age 55 of pneumonia.

NOVENA TO ST. JOSEPH (Feb19 - March 20)

O God, who in your ineffable providence, chose Blessed Joseph to be the spouse of your most holy Mother and father to your Only Begotten Son. We beg that under his patronage our parish school may flourish, forming children and their families in truth, goodness, and beauty. With St. Joseph's fatherly assistance, may our parish and school accomplish the work of God in San Francisco, through Christ our Lord, who reigns eternally with the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever. Amen.

Sts. Perpetua & Felicity | Catholic Saints

Dr. Elizabeth Klein and Taylor Kemp discuss the life and impact of two female martyrs from the third century, Sts. Perpetua and Felicity. Both were beheaded for refusing to renounce their Christian faith. Their feast day is March 7.

Faith Prevails: The Miracle of Bolsena

An inspired retelling of the Eucharistic Miracle of Bolsena-Orvieto, "Faith Prevails" follows the journey of Fr. Peter of Prague, a priest doubtful of the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. When the Host begins to bleed during Mass, he must come to terms with his own disbelief while the witnesses of the miracle experience changes in their own faith. The film is based on the real event of the Eucharistic Miracle of Bolsena-Orvieto, which was the catalyst for the institution of the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ.

Stella Maris Academy

On the Feast of St. Joseph in 1977, the Sacred Congregation for Catholic Education promulgated a document entitled “The Catholic School.” In outlining the distinctive characteristics of Catholic education, the document rightly points out that “the Catholic school’s task is fundamentally a synthesis of culture and faith, and a synthesis of faith and life: the first is reached by integrating all the different aspects of human knowledge through the subjects taught, in the light of the Gospel; the second is the growth of the virtues characteristic of the Christian.” (Congregation for Catholic Education, The Catholic School 37).

At Stella Maris Academy, we have adopted the Virtues in Practice curriculum, created by the Dominican Sisters of St. Cecilia ~ Congregation of Nashville, Tennessee. Over the course of 3 years, the program frames 27 character virtues within the context of the 3 theological virtues - faith, hope and charity.

It is fitting that this year’s Lenten season spans both February (cheerfulness) and March (temperance). Cheerfulness is that fundamentally Christian virtue that helps us to keep in perspective the joy of salvation. In a world of many distractions that pull us towards the highs and lows of lesser goods, temperance helps us to maintain our focus on what really matters through moderation.

Through the Lenten practices of prayer, fasting and almsgiving, students and teachers are preparing themselves for the joy of Easter.

Michaela Semling is the grades 1 and 2 teacher at Stella Maris Academy. After receiving instructional training and experience at a classical school in the Bronx, she found Stella Maris through a little news clipping. When she heard about the mission of Stella Maris, Michaela knew God was inviting her to something extraordinary.

Stella Maris Academy's Catholic identity is intertwined with classical education. At Stella Maris, teachers guide students to Christ, the Logos, through truth, goodness, and beauty found in the great stories of Scripture, History, and classical children's literature. In Michaela's classroom, there is a little sacred period after lunch where she and her students read and discuss children's classics. The children gasp, smile, sigh; they hold perfectly still in anticipation, they raise their hands in the air, begging to be called on and share something they noticed in the stories. They exclaim: "The velveteen rabbit is REAL!" or "Silly Pooh Bear!" One of Michaela's favorite aspects of the education at Stella Maris is reading stories that draw students into something simple, yet beautiful and great, stirring them to look heavenward. Here at Stella Maris, children receive what is deep and rich, inspiring their moral imaginations and ultimately leading them to Christ.
