

Our Mission: To evangelize God's people beginning with the gift of the Holy Eucharist The office will be closed on Thursday, July 4 in observance of U.S. Independence Day

The traditional Latin Mass Rumors are rife in Rome that the Vatican may further restrict the traditional Latin Mass, perhaps even banning diocesan priests from ever celebrating such a Mass with their people. Religious institutes that have been founded to celebrate the older form of the Mass will most likely continue enjoying that privilege, but such a ban would be a bit merciless for our parish, which was asked by the Archbishop in 2013 to celebrate the more ancient forms of the liturgy. We have consequently

On a practical level, several possibilities remain even if the TLM is completely restricted in our parish. First, we can celebrate the ordinary form of the Mass with the utmost reverence, with the ordinary parts and Eucharistic Prayer in Latin, even chanting the readings in the ancient and sacred language of the Church. We should be able to continue praying the "prayers at the foot" before Mass and the Last Gospel after Mass, along with the Leonine prayers. Another possibility would be to seek permission to celebrate Mass in the "Anglican usage," which is essentially an English translation of the traditional Mass. A third solution would be to give one of our parishes, perhaps Star of the Sea, to a religious institute that has permission to celebrate the older usage (e.g., the Fraternity of St. Peter or the Institute of Christ King). One thing is certain: We should never doubt the providence of God, who will surely provide a way for us to worship Him with due reverence. We may lose a certain beauty of liturgical form, and that would be a shame. But it need not restrict our love for God, nor our heartfelt worship.

Some, who are more attached to the form of worship than the object of worship, may lose their faith if the traditional Mass is abolished. They may stop going to Mass, or they may lose their faith in Christ's Church. May that never happen to anyone in our parish! Liturgical beauty is a gift, but we must be clear that even the most splendid liturgy is only a means, not an end. The end is union with God, and as hard as it is, we must continue to worship him in spirit and in truth. If St. Maximilian Kolbe could offer Mass in Auschwitz without vestments or books, and if Cardinal Francis Van Thuan could offer Mass in solitary confinement, putting a drop of wine into his hand for a chalice, and if Japanese Catholics could maintain their faith for 200 years without the Eucharist at all, then we can offer Mass in difficult circumstances as well. We don't choose the times in which we live. We only choose how we live in the times we have been given.

The Second Confiteor On January 1st we made a few changes to the Mass, including dropping the second Confiteor in the TLM and the exchange of peace at daily English Masses. Having evaluated these changes over the last six months, and listening to many people's thoughts on these questions, I've decided to restore the second Confiteor and the exchange of peace at the daily Masses, beginning July 1. Joseph Illo.

The Sunday Scriptures

By Fr. Joseph Illo (Wis 1: 13-15; 2: 23-24; Cor 8: 7, 9, 13-15; Mk 5: 21-43) Jairus The synagogue official by that name falls at the feet of Jesus to beg for his daughter's life. For 3000 years Jews and Christians have been falling on their knees when they pray to God. Sometimes we stand at Mass, and sometimes we sit, but if we never kneel, something is wrong with our prayer. Some Catholic churches have gotten rid of their kneelers. But Jairus was compelled to fall on his knees before his Lord, and his only hope.

St. Anthony Mary Zaccaria's feast day is July 5th. He was a medical doctor turn priest and founded the Barnabites. He was a leader in the counter-reformation and promoted prayer and the 40-hour devotion to the Blessed Sacrament, saying, "Prayer is...the Spirit present within your heart." Prayer: Christ, our Savior, you endowed St. Anthony Mary with the light and flame of a solid faith. Maria Goretti: The Story of the Patroness of Modern Youth (Feast, July 6) The story of Saint Maria Goretti is retold in this film from Italy. It explains the plight of the poor laborers of the time, struggling to survive in a swampy area with rampant malaria and extreme poverty. Luigi and Assunta Goretti keep their faith despite the hardship, and they instill in their children a deep love for God. Their daughter Maria is especially devout. But tragedy strikes more than once: sickness and death affects the Goretti family, and then their young neighbor Alessandro does the unthinkable.
