

16 Shrines of Our Lady at STAR of the SEA

Our Mission: To evangelize God's people beginning with the gift of the Holy Eucharist

THE OFFICE WILL BE CLOSED
ON MONDAY OCTOBER 13
FOR COLUMBUS DAY

October 12, 2025 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time (Red Missal: pg 627) - Our Lady of the Pillar Feast (Proper of the Mass provided at church)

GK Chesterton The first book I read by GK Chesterton was his biography of St. Francis. Chesterton led me to understand that little Italian man who roamed the hills around Assisi 800 years ago, who has been so formative in my journey to Christ. Chesterton is one of the most important Catholics of our time, but it's helpful to have a guide to his genius. Dale Ahlquist, founder of the Chesterton Academy network and probably the most eminent living authority on this eminent English writer, will be speaking at our parish this Tuesday (October 14). I highly recommend this talk, especially to those committed to classically educating both their children and themselves.

Sabbatical Report Many have asked me how my summer sabbatical in Ireland went along, and I am grateful to have completed the writing of my two books. Here are some pictures from that blessed time in rural Cork:

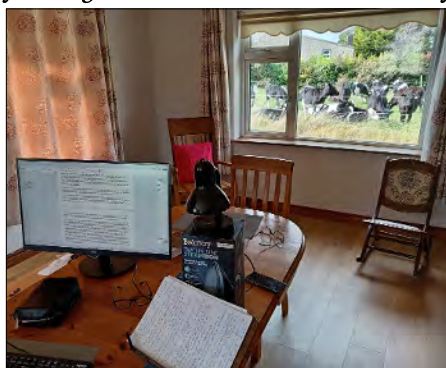

Putting my name in the guest book, along with that of Pope Benedict and King Charles, at St. John Henry Newman's writing desk in the Birmingham Oratory; My car fallen in a hidden ditch (having pulled onto the "shoulder" to let a tractor pass);

My little "sabbatical parish," Immaculate Conception in the village Enniskeane; My red bike at a wayside Lourdes shrine;

My little farmhouse and runabout car, kindly provided by Donncha and Marisela O'Cochlain; My writing desk inside the house with friendly cows

A new friend, Fr. Sean Crowley, on a hike up Mount Brandon in Kerry with Skellig Michael island in the distance; Exploring an abandoned "famine village" on Sheep's Head Peninsula with Donncha.

I am most grateful to God and to the parish for the privilege of this sabbatical. I was given the time and quiet space to read twenty books on Our Lady and write two of them myself. My history of our parish will be available in a few months, and my book on Our Lady's apparitions will come out within twelve months. Fr. Joseph Illo

The Sunday Scripture

“Unprofitable” 2 Kings 5: 14-17; 2 Tim 2: 8-13; Lk 17: 11-19

The Lord tells us today that we are “unprofitable” servants, which is probably better translated “useless.” Ouch! Are we really that pathetic? Yes, we are. We are nothing without Him. The sooner we, the great and the good, the Beautiful People of San Francisco, get that into our mules’ heads, the better. We are beautiful, but only because He is beautiful!

EUCCHARISTIC

ADORATION We celebrate St. Teresa of Avila on October 15th. She was born into a wealthy, but devout family. She is a Doctor of The Church, and her most famous spiritual writings include The Way of Perfection and The Interior

Castle. She prayed to Jesus: “You came into the world for me; for me You underwent severe trials; for me You suffered many lashes; for me You remain in the most Blessed Sacrament.”

Jesus remains in the Blessed Sacrament for you, too! Please sign up for a weekly commitment at www.adorationpro.org/star

Holy Hour Needs: Sundays at 1 pm & 10 pm, and 11 pm; Mondays, 9 am; Wednesdays, 8, 9 and 11 am, and 11 pm; Thursdays, 10 and 11 am.

FORMED RECOMMENDATIONS: <http://watch.formed.org>

FORMED IS FREE TO ALL PARISHIONERS! A powerful epic mini-series shot on location in Spain that tells the story of one of the most amazing women in history, St. Teresa of Avila, who was called by God to reform and renew the Carmelite order, a daunting task. She was joined in this work by her great fellow Carmelite and spiritual director, St. John of the Cross. This film reveals the conversion that Teresa herself had to go thru to deepen her own union with Christ as she endeavored to bring about that same deeper spiritual reform of her Carmelite order. It shows the tremendous opposition that she and John both faced within (and without) their order to bring about this much needed spiritual renewal. She and John of the Cross were both great mystics who combined the essential dimensions of a profound spiritual life with the very practical aspects of being completely dedicated to the human tasks necessary for such a reform.
