A Lenten Grab Bag Lent gives us a season of purification and preparation for the annual celebrations of Holy Week. With Ash Wednesday just a few days away, we are on the threshold of that season of grace, a nice opportunity to reflect on some things said by well-known saints and other holy figures, around the topics of mercy, prayer, and fasting.

"Confession heals, confession justifies, confession grants pardon of sin.... In confession there is a chance for mercy. Believe it firmly. Hope and have confidence in confession." - St. Isidore

"God acts mercifully, not indeed by going against His justice, but by doing something more than justice." - St. Thomas Aquinas

"There is no misery that could be a match for My mercy." - Jesus to St. Faustina

"God never tires of forgiving us; we are the ones who tire of seeking his mercy." - Pope Francis

"Seek a relationship when you pray, not answers. You won't always find answers, but you will always find Jesus." - Fr. Mike Schmitz

"Do you wish your prayer to fly toward God? Make for it two wings: fasting and almsgiving." - St. Augustine

"You don't know how to pray? Put yourself in the presence of God, and as soon as you have said, 'Lord, I don't know how to pray!' you can be sure you've already begun." - St. Josemaría Escrivá

"Pray, hope, and don't worry. Worry is useless, God is merciful and will hear your prayer." - St. Pio of Pietrelcina

Burning of Blessed Palms for Ash Wednesday Ashes.

"The ultimate goal of fasting is to help each one of us to make a complete gift of self to God." - Pope Benedict XVI

"Although we may be able to do but little, the enemy nevertheless stands more in awe of those whom he knows can fast." - St. Francis de Sales

"You could say that prayer without fasting is like boxing with one hand tied behind your back, and that fasting without prayer is, well, dieting." - Matt Fradd

"Fasting is most intimately connected with prayer. For the mind of one who is filled with food and drink is so borne down as not to be able to raise itself to the contemplation of God, or even to understand what prayer means." - Catechism of the Council of Trent.

Fr. Michael Konopik

The Sunday Scripture

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time Sirach 15:15-20; Ps 119:1-2,4-5,17-18,33-34; 1 Corinthians 2:6-10; Matthew 5:17-37 In Jesus is revealed a new wisdom, a new law, a new way of living. Happy are they who choose to keep his commandments and follow his ways.

Eucharistic Adoration

We celebrate the Seven Founders (Florentine noblemen—Bonifilius, Alexis Falconieri, John Bonagiunta, Benedict dell'Antella, Bartholomew Amidei, Gerard Sostegni, and Ricoverus Ugucione) of the Servite Order on February 17, the day when Alexis, the only lay brother of the six priests, and the last to die, passed away. Influenced by a vision of Mary, they lived under the Rule of St. Augustine, with devotion to her Seven Sorrows. They are known to say, "Giving our everything to glorify God is ...something that we.... devote ourselves in... making it our reason for being." FORMED WEEKLY RECOMMENDATIONS

<http://watch.formed.org>. Free to all parishioners! Forgiven:

The Transforming Power of Confession.

The series of 9 episodes, explores the grace and healing offered in Confession and shows how this sacrament of mercy reveals the depth and bounty of God's love. By looking at God's revelation of his mercy in Scripture and making a step-by-step examination of the Rite itself, Forgiven communicates God's invitation to each one of us to come experience his indescribable love in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.
